NAME FIVE POSSIBLE SITES

Site Survey, Space Analysis Completed for Proposed Building

A site survey and space analysis for the proposed new County Building for Crawford County has been completed by the engineering and architectural firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowan and Storton, Inc., for the Crawford County Building Authority.

The site survey recommended five different sites in or near the City of Grayling for the new proposed building. One would be the present site with the possibility of adding the remainder of the block to the site. On this site, a two story building would be contemplated. The other four selected sites would accommodate a "one story structure. The other four sites, described briefly, would be at the west end of Michigan ave. across the railroad tracks on the banks of the Ausable River; another would be at the northeast corner of the extension of Michigan avenue and the County Road; a third would be south of the airport and west of McMillan street and the fourth across US-27 from the new City Hall.

The space survey showed that 26,000 square feet would be needed in a new building as compared with 20,312 in the present building. The County Clerk's office in the proposed structure would cover 1,450 square feet compared to the present 542. The Registrar's office would have 950 in comparison to the now 315. The County Treasurer's space would jump from the present 542 to a proposed 950; 700 square feet would be provided for a County Assessor where there is presently none; Social Welfare would go from the present 1,055 to 1,250; 400 square feet would be provided for the Draft Board which has none at the present time; Health Department would get 600; the County Superintendent of Schools 300 and the County Agent 200. The three have none now. Civil Defense would be given 350, Engineering 650. They have none at present.

The judicial system, including the Court Room, Circuit Court and Probate Judge rooms, Prosecuting Attorney and Justice of the Peace would be given a total of 4,350 sq. feet where only 1,918 square feet are allotted now.

The new County Jail and Sheriff's office and living quarters would contain 5,915 square feet where only 3,500 are allotted now. Building services such as maintenance, heating, dining, lounges and other needed spaces would contain 7,325 square feet where none is available now.

New Billiard Parlor To Open This Weekend

The opening of the all-new Side-pocket Billiard Parlor is announced this week by its owner, Irving DuPre. The establishment will open its doors to the public on Saturday and Sunday, November 20 and 21st.

There are six brand new Brunswick billiard tables which will provide great entertainment for the whole family. The owner stresses the fact that he will conduct a parlor that is strictly managed, with no roughness or profanity permitted. It is his intention to provide an atmosphere in which the ladies will join their families in this well-known recreation, which has recently enjoyed a return of popularity as a family skill. Manager of the Side-pocket will be Chuck Bonanie.

The Side-pocket began to be a reality when Mr. DuPre acquired the vacant lot between the Peterson Hardware and Northern Michigan Land Company, formerly used as a municipal parking lot. Ground was broken for the 30 x 60 one-story cement block building the last week in September and work has progressed rapidly from that date, until the present grand opening.

Give a Gift Only You Can Give

There is a war in Viet Nam. A soldier is wounded and needs blood or a blood product. A plane is crashed and sinks. The survivors need blood or a blood product. Pretty remote? Perhaps so, however, in this county last year 536 pints of blood were used. Where does this blood come from? We are supplied by the Lansing Blood Center (a service of the American Red Cross). Where does

County To Get $14,472 For Snow Removal

Lansing — Annual snow removal payments will be distributed to 53 of Michigan's 83 county road commissions before November 15, the State Highway Department reports. Last year, only 32 counties qualified by recording snow accumulations of 70 inches or more.

Payments will total $271,522.81 compared to $435,844.54 paid a year ago. Crawford County had an average snowfall of 126 inches and will receive $14,472.

Michigan's average snowfall during the winter of 1964-65 was 96.27 inches, an increase of 29 inches over the previous winter and every county except Berrien reported an increase in the average accumulation.

THREE REGULARS RETURN

Grayling Vikings Begin Work for 17 Game Basketball Slate

With three returning regulars bolstered by five returning letter winners from last year, the 1965-66 edition of the GHS basketball game began workouts under their new coach Franklin Smith with one eye on the calendar for the opener less than two weeks away.

Returning regulars from last year are: Terry Wright, LeRoy Neal and Pat Thompson. They will be aided and abetted by five letter winners from last year. John Sorenson, Art Wakeley, Kyle Slusser, Dave Nethers and Bob Smock.

Also expected to add strength to the varsity squad are five members of last year's junior varsity team who Coach Smith has moved up. They are: Mike Corlew, Steve DuBois, Dale Slusser, Dane Madsen and Barry Holmes.

With this squad of thirteen cagers, Coach Smith is expected to build a team which should be one Northern Michigan Class C contender of the strong contenders in the area. Several other teams in the loop also have returning regulars which should make for a very interesting race this winter in the northern lower peninsula.

New Junior varsity coach Garrett Buft started off his season with a turnout of twenty-six young hopefuls. Following a week or so of workouts, the squad will probably be trimmed somewhat.

Following is the Complete 1965-66 schedule for the Grayling Vikings:

Mrs. Jean Compton of the Home Economics Department designed the costumes. She is also supervising the production.

Ushers are Pat Thompson, Terri Frinkle, Jon MacLeod, Barry Holmes, LeRoy Neal, Mike Corlew and Maureen Lietz. All class members will serve on the "clean-up" committee when it comes time to "strike" the set.

Music-between-the-acts will be provided by the G.H.S. Vocal Department, under the direction of Mr. Howard Taylor. A quartet will sing as one feature. Miss Kim Marie Church, soloist, will sing "Wine of Life", an original music composition by Mr. Minor, the play director.

Area Chamber of Commerce Offers $140 In Cash Prizes

Grayling is rolling out the "red carpet" for all the "red coats" hunting for deer in Crawford County. The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce is coordinating the various activities that are being planned for this weekend. To help the downstate and outstate hunters, the Chamber is setting up a Mobile Office on the corner of Michigan and James. Free county maps, accommodation help, hunting information, and general information will be available to all persons. The Chamber Office in the City Hall will be manned during regular hours and all day Saturday.

For the first time in several years a buck pole is to be set up where all trophy deer taken in Crawford County can be admired by all. This community buck pole will be located at Don's Standard

Service on Cedar Street. Also, at this same location is the official weigh-in station for prizes. The prizes which will be given during the deer season are divided into six categories. $50.00 will be given for the largest-racked buck, $30.00 for the heaviest deer, $25.00 for the first buck brought in, $15.00 for the first woman hunter bringing a buck in, $10.00 for the youngest hunter bringing in a deer, and $10.00 for the most perfect rack. #### GRAYLING SPORTS PARK REPORT

Visitors to the Park this past week would have seen two things which would lead them to believe the ski season was already on. Snow on the hills and a parking lot full of cars. Actually there wasn't more than a sample of snow. Certainly not enough to ski on, but enough to remind us that it won't be long. And we might add that there will be plenty of snow here by the middle of December as the new snow-making equipment is scheduled to be in operation.

The cars in the parking lot were those of workmen, contractors, vendors and visitors. Each with some interest in the exciting new developments. Huge concrete slabs were poured by Jack Millikin's crews under the watchful eye of Ed Patchak working with Engineer Harold Jones of the Structural Plastics Company of Minnesota. This week six high concrete pillars will be poured upon which the unique polyhedron building will rest.

On the slopes, Virgil Oldham of the Marble Electric Company of Osceola completed the erection of the steel towers for the new test-bay lift. A crew of volunteer boys from Camp LaVictoire set poles for snow fences and worked at clearing sticks and roots from the six new slopes at the east end of the area.

Membership applications are coming in steadily. The special low rates for charter memberships are still open to anyone who takes advantage of it before December 1st. Anyone interested is urged to contact Park Manager Harry Travis right away. Send for the new 1965-66 brochure for additional information. And if you are interested in renting a ski locker for the season put your name in now.

Harry Travis, Park Mgr.

Search For Camp LaVictoire Walkways

State Police, Crawford County Sheriff's officers and the Grayling City Police were alerted last Thursday for John Martin, 17, who walked away from Camp LaVictoire about 8 p. m.

Martin, whose home is in Boyne Falls, had not been found as of Tuesday morning of this week.

A second walkaway from Camp LaVictoire occurred Tuesday morning at 9:15, when James L. Daniels, 16, left a work detail. He was apprehended three hours later, at 12:25 p. m. by State Police Trooper Helm and his dog, near the Pines.

Sheriff Clough picked up one Bennie Collins on M-72 west near Lake Margrethe Friday at 6 p. m. about fifteen minutes after he had walked away from a car which was taking him to a boys training school. Antrim County officials were notified and picked him up from Sheriff Clough later.

Modern Woodmen of America
Home Office - Rock Island, Ill.

November 20th by the crack of high powered rifles. Our 500,000 whitetail deer spend the next two weeks becoming the most elusive game animal in Michigan. Many red coated hunters will wonder what become of that beautiful eight pointer that was around during grouse season.

Restaurants, gas stations, motels, and bars will ring to the noise of the busy cash register and the tall tales of the army of 500,000 hunters. Those having good success at hunting will praise the deer management policies of the State of Michigan and others will loudly condemn the poor hunting.

Times are rapidly changing and the sweet smell of a wood stove in a hunting camp or the hardy tent campers are being replaced by house trailers and motels, oil burners, and hot pads. Still the hunters in red coats will receive unmeasurable benefits from their trip to Northern Michigan.

Sons who do not see enough of their busy dads will cement a lasting memory of a few days in camp with dad. Remember how dad pulled his rifle up on that big buck and nothing happened when he pulled the trigger? That darn safety must have stuck! Those long quiet hours sitting in a rut and quietly talking over everyday problems. Who really cares if we went home empty handed.

Old friendships will be renewed and new ones established during the deer season. The evenings spent around the camp stove or trailer table are always fond memories. Maybe we did argue a little on this or that, but that is part of living.

Those friendly card games with rules that change with each dealer were always part of the fun. How about those pancakes that bounced when they fell to the floor? Do you suppose that all camp coffee is black or is it a new type of coffee bean?

This phenomena of men and deer
has been going on for many years and will continue to go on as long as good land management policies are practiced in Michigan.

The whitetail is another of the harvests of the land. Many people value deer because they simply enjoy seeing them. Others enjoy seeing them but also enjoy hunting. Good land management will maintain a balance between numbers of deer and habitat available to deer.

Deer are primarily an animal of the young forest which contains low growing cover, plus some openings and brush areas. As Michigan forests cover changes so changes the deer herd. Mature forests are not productive deer areas. Our forests are growing up and changing from young second growth to older stages.

As the deer herds grow, they must have good food for energy and for growth. Since the whitetail is a browser animal, it feeds on buds, leaves, twigs, ferns, and soft parts of shrubs and trees. Trees with the lowest branches are best. Above the ground will not feed on deer.

Good forest management plans to keep a balance between young forest and old. This is primarily accomplished through timber harvesting. Cutting of timber releases the ecological cycle and establishes prime deer habitat. A perpetual supply of both timber and deer is insured through wise forest management.

The harvesting of pulpwood through commercial logging makes it possible to carry out land management plans. In 1964, about 100, 000 cords of pulpwood was cut in Michigan. This would be equivalent to one continuous pile of wood four feet high stretching from Detroit to Louisville and then back through Wisconsin to Chicago. Over 1000 miles of wood.

The key to continued good deer hunting for this generation and generations to come is good forest management.

Know the facts about forest management and support efforts of trained foresters and biologists to keep the memories of Whitetails and Red Coats alive in Michigan.

County Health Services Surveyed

(Special to the Avalanche)
NEW YORK. — How Crawford County's health personnel and hospital facilities compare in quantity with what is available in other communities is revealed in a new survey, conducted by the U.
S. Public Health Service.

The need for such an inventory has been brought into sharp focus by the critical situation that is developing in the United States in the field of health care.

For some years, the supply
and distribution of doctors, nurses, technicians and others have been failing to keep pace with the changes in population.

These services will be stretched even thinner than they are now
when Medicare becomes effective on July 1, 1966.

The results of the survey have just been released in a publication entitled "Health Manpower Source Book." It is the first such study in five years. It details the medical and dental services available in each part of the country.

Crawford County is listed with a total of 36 people in the four major categories — physicians, dentists, nurses and pharmacists.

The breakdown shows 6 physicians, 2 dentists, 24 nurses, 13 of whom are active, and 4 pharmacists.

The figures, which reflect 1963
registrations in some instances,
are based on place of residence.

Wide regional and other variations exist in the supply of such personnel in relation to population. The concentration is unusually high in the greater metropolitan areas.

In Crawford County, the 36 men and women in the health categories listed are equivalent to 71 per 10,000 population.

Among comparable counties
throughout the country, the average is 52 per 10,000 persons.

For the United States as a whole, the rate is 72 and in Michigan, 65.

Government experts estimate that Medicare will cause hospital usage to jump 15 percent or more,
creating the need for more hospital beds.

The report shows that in Crawford County, there are 98 general hospital beds per 10,000 population.

The average in the rest of the country is 58 such beds per 10,000 people.

First Baptist Church of Frederic

Mr. Glenn Jones of Pontiac will be the guest speaker next Sunday morning. Mr. Jones is a drafting engineer and value analyst for Vickers Corporation and is known nationally in that field. He is also a Bible teacher and a designer of visual aid services for Bible teaching. You will not want to miss hearing this man of God.

The Frederic Baptist Church will launch participation in the Worldwide Bible Reading program in its Thanksgiving Program to be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, November 24th, in Frederic. More than twenty million persons all over the world participate in this program, now in its 22nd year. It is observed annually between Thanksgiving and Christmas as a spiritual bond to unite the peoples of the world. This period is also known as advent for Christmas all over the world. The theme for 1965 is "Faith for a New Age."

Each day, all persons participating read exactly the same verse from the Bible, Pastor C. F. Olin of the Frederic church explains. Selections are printed in advance on booklets and distributed without charge to churches, hotels, libraries, stores, banks and to people who request them. Pastor Olin will send one upon request by mail.

This year the first selection will be Psalm 1, to be read on Thanksgiving, November 25, and the last selection, to be read on Christmas, will be Luke 2:1-20. Different selections are listed for each day of the program.

The idea originated in 1943 from a request by a lonely Marine stationed in the South Pacific. He wrote his parents asking them to join him in reading identical verses selected from the Bible on a daily basis. Thus together they would be able to maintain a true spiritual bond although thousands of miles apart. His mother, recognizing the tremendous spiritual hunger which must be experienced by many other servicemen, called the American Bible Society's office to share the idea. In time, shared Bible reading between home and foxhole grew to worldwide proportions, and in the years following people in other countries have joined in.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Doroh stayed Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Guy Wheaton at Lyons. They had Sunday dinner with a daughter and family, the Herbert Ritters and Claudia and Craig in DeWitt. Subject for discussion was "What's new in Family Fabrics" and a lively discussion followed on the new materials with particular emphasis on the hosiery problem. Without mentioning names the two newest names in hosiery do not live up to expectations.

We are looking forward to our Pot Luck Christmas Tea and display tables showing various subjects members are interested in and have worked on.

This Modern "Music" . . .

How strange it is to be able to say, "I'm glad I graduated from high school during the 'great depression'." But it's true!

Out of high school on to Junior College during 1932. Those of you who know your recent "ancient" history could figure "how-bad-off-can-you-get?"

It was really hard times but now with a chance to look back over a more than thirty year span there were compensations.

We think that we speak for most of the adults when we say "We just can't understand this modern trend in music."

Again we say that we were very fortunate to have come of age after the era of Dixieland (as good as it is) and to have dropped into the age of "swing."

A dime in those days was a "whole lot of money". For a thin dime in Flint, Michigan one could get into that I.M.A. Auditorium (Industrial Mutual Association, a General Motors organization) see three triple A basketball games and listen to a "name" band as well and for just a bit more dance.

We were fortunate enough to be able to hear in person during those dark and trying days such outfits as Duke Ellington, Clyde McCoy, Ted Weems, Fats Waller, Wayne King, Guy Lombardo, Isham Jones, Pee-wee Hunt, Red Nichols, Woody Herman, Cab Callaway, Ray Conniff, the Dorsey brothers, and many, many others. Our only regret is that we never have had the chance to hear "in person" the great Louie, the Armstrong.

Yes, we, now as we look back, are glad to have given up a lot to have heard these great bands, (and we did give up plenty in view of the way today's-teen's live) but . . . it was all worth it.

A thousand, no not even tens of thousands of Beatles or Rolling Stones, could even begin to equal one presentation by these "great bands" of the past.

No, we do not condemn the younger generation and their "on the beat" "frantic" music, we feel very, very sorry for them. They haven't even had a chance to know what "music" is, although they seem to like it — to each his own.

We know that speaking thusly, we really do date ourselves and we do it gladly . . . "we are of the depression generation . . . and the age of the big . . . and great musical organizations." — R.W.S.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

November 19, 1942

Mrs. Henry A. Bauman passed away at Grayling Mercy Hospital at about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the family home Wednesday afternoon, with interment in Elmwood cemetery. Grayling people have lost a sincere friend and their sympathies go out to the family circle. Her generosity to every sort of varied charities from help to the needy, assistance to churches, organizations and individuals was given without "the left hand knowing what the right hand doeth."

The hearing that was scheduled last week Friday between the Supervisors and R. B. McDonald at the courthouse to act on the petition by Mr. McDonald for constructing a dam across the AuSable River was a short duration. Mr. McDonald withdrew his petition and accordingly the matter was closed. The large protest against harnessing the river came from Grayling Sportsmens club, river guides and resort owners along the river. Since locating on the river Mr. McDonald has formed many acquaintances and is held in high esteem with everyone and he says he was willing to make any reasonable sacrifice rather than mar these pleasant relations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bissonette of Mt. Morris spent the weekend here visiting relatives.

No matter what others may think, we believe there were more deer hunters in Grayling this season than ever before. Every hotel and rooming house and scores of private homes were filled to capacity. Streets were so crowded nights that both sides of downtown streets, diagonal parked cars in the center, were jammed with parked cars. And this condition spread out to all side streets. The jam was slightly smaller by Tuesday and Wednesday but there are still many hunters in this area. Lots of loud talking on the streets until the wee hours of the morning. Merchants were taxed to the limits to wait upon the trade. Many stocks were wiped out. Eating places just couldn't give their usual prompt service. To make things worse efficient help was almost impossible to get. (Editor's note—This is 1942?)

Miss Mary Jane Joseph was home from M. S. C. over the weekend visiting her parents, the A. J. Josephs.

Mrs. Richard Snyder and daughter Margrethe Kristine of Saginaw arrived Monday and are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson.

Fred Ingalls has gone to Muskegon to look for work.

Clifton Papendick of Seneca, Ill. is here this week visiting LeRoy Papendick.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phippney, former residents of Grayling, and grandson of Ashley are camping down river this week while hunting.

Roy McEvers and son Ted of Bay City, both filled their deer licenses while hunting here over the weekend.

The Just Us Club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Robert LaMotte. They played pinochle and a lunch was served.

Robert Papendick got a six point buck Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. He was one of the first in the county to get his deer. Hawley Mills of Plymouth was a hunting guest at the home of W. J. Heric for a few days.

Thomas Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, has been promoted to Sergeant at Fort Ord, California.

Edward Sorenson and friend and Bob Chappell of Grosse Ile were home visiting their parents the first of the week.

Edwin Funck was home for the weekend with his parents. Edwin is working at the Borg-Warner Corp. Detroit, in the aircraft parts division.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mosher of Flint were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Hattie Mosher for the opening of the deer season.

Mrs. William Christenson was called to Long Branch, N. J., on account of her brother, Herman Schreiber being ill with pneumonia. Mr. Schreiber is a teacher at the senior high school there. He also is a radio instructor.

Lieut. John Henry Peterson arrived home Sunday from Robson Field, Macon, Georgia, on a few days leave to visit his mother, Mrs. Holger F. Peterson. About a month ago he was promoted to 1st Lieut. While here he received word that he has been transferred to Hq. 3rd Air Service Area Command at Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Feldhauser are enjoying a visit from their daughter Miss Louise, who is home for a few days from her training at Mercy Hospital, Muskegon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles David of Flint spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eggie Bugby and also went deer hunting. Mr. David got his eight point buck Sunday morning.

Hunters at the home of Mrs. Clarence Ingalls for the opening of deer season included Ora Ingalls and Leon Perry of Muskegon; Clarence Ingalls and William Caper of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ringman, Ray Lerch and Walter Lerch Jr., of Adrian. Two of the party filled their licenses.

Mrs. Josie Parker of Lansing, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Babbitt while their daughter, Mrs. Leroy Watson, Vern Watson and Marion Parker are hunting here.

George Bielski Jr. was injured when his car struck the abutment of a bridge at Indian River, completely wrecking it. Others in the car were more seriously injured and taken to a hospital in Cheboygan. All except Bielski were from Detroit and on their way to a hunting camp and stopped in Grayling to pick him up. The accident occurred at about 4:30 a. m. Monday.

Harry Reynolds of Midland was in Grayling over the weekend.

Miss Dorothy Swanson is here spending the week visiting her sisters and families Mrs. Clarence Gross and Mrs. Alex Atkinson.

Staff Sergeant Frank May Jr. of Chicago, Ill., is home on a ten-day furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Frank May Sr.

heating oil?

If you are, you're paying too much to heat your home.

If you are now using natural Gas (or plan to) for cooking, water heating, clothes drying or Gaslights, and your use is equal to that of our average residential customer, you can get your Gas for heating under our special service rate at a cost equivalent to fuel oil priced at just 11½¢ a gallon. And the nice thing about our Gas rates is that the more you use, the less it costs per unit. That's a bargain in anybody's book.

Can't pay for the cost of conversion right now? Here's good news: Whether you convert your present furnace, or even install a new Gas furnace, Michigan Consolidated will pay for it and its installation by a qualified heating contractor. And it won't cost you a penny until July 1, 1966!

So why not make your present oil furnace more economical this winter? Have it converted to economical natural Gas. Then you can start putting your money in the bank for a change. Instead of in your furnace. For full details, call us or your heating contractor today.

4-H ARCHERY CLUB PROJECT PLANNED

Boys and girls from ages 11 to 15 are going to have an opportunity to participate in a 4-H Archery Club in Grayling according to Dave Olson, County Natural Resource Agent.

Mrs. Carole Staley of the Reava Sewing Center has volunteered to instruct 20 youngsters in how to safely and properly use bow and arrows, learn about archery equipment, learn how to shoot, and develop shooting skills. Mrs. Staley is an experienced archer in both hunting and competitive archery and has previously instructed 4-H Archery Clubs in Midland.

IF YOU ARE between the ages of 11 and 15 and would like to learn and develop the skill of archery, stop in at the Reava Sewing Center and sign up for the 4-H Archery Club.

It is not necessary for you to own a bow in order to participate in the club.

Woman's Club

Woman's Club met Monday evening at the club house.

Mrs. C. R. Holcomb introduced the Rev. Robert Buck of the Free Methodist Church at Grayling and Roscommon. His talk centered on Veterans Day. He told of his service experience in Japan following the war and his meeting a Japanese family. Although a language and custom barrier existed, the method of communication and understanding which developed proved rewarding to the speaker.

Mrs. Martha Terry of Paris, Mich., was a special guest. President Mrs. Dale Hatt presided at the business meeting.

Mrs. John Ludeman, chairman of the bazaar and bake-sale, made final work assignments. Lunch hostesses were Mrs. Lyle Johnson and Mrs. Glen Fenton. They used an unusual centerpiece of an old fashioned wall type telephone surrounded by fruit and flanked on either side by hurricane lamps with candles.

CHEERLEADING NEWS

Megaphone Corner: As you all know, the Junior Varsity had an exciting time at Midland on October 30, 1965, when they attended the cheerleading clinic at Northwood Institute along with cheerleaders from many other schools. The Grayling group was judged and all received citations of merit for a job well done.

The pep assemblies are due for a change with the coming of basketball season. Many new ideas are in the making and we need you—students—to help us.

Here are two new cheers. Really simple. You yell and we'll work: "Green and White, fight, fight! Who fight? We fight, Green and White, fight fight!"

Action! A-C-T-clap, clap, I-O-N-clap, clap. Action Vikings, Action-clap, clap. A-C-T-clap, clap, I-O-N-clap, clap. Action, Vikings, action!"

The cheerleaders are also working on two projects in order to buy new uniforms and new letters. They are selling bracelets now and pens with the Viking basketball schedule when they arrive.

Sure hope you like our improvements. If you have any suggestions let us know. Read the megaphone corner for spirited news. Mrs. Taylor, sponsor

IS THERE A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE?

DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE
Finding a doctor in a nighttime emergency is difficult, at best, partly because of a shortage of men in this profession.

One attempt to relieve this situation will be made next year when Michigan State University enters the medical education field.

Starting with its first class in a new College of Human Medicine, the East Lansing institution hopes to provide fill-ins for students who drop out of full-course medical schools before the third year. Later, as the public need grows, it is likely MSU will provide its own four-year program.

Michigan is now served by medical schools at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. The former is at capacity enrollment and Wayne officials have room for only a small number more with present staff and facilities.

Although there has been some opposition to MSU's effort to establish the first two years in medical training, officials have progressed with plans for more than three years.

The new college will utilize several existing departments at MSU, such as anatomy and physiology; and add a department of medicine to round out the course work necessary for preliminary medical education.

Original plans were aimed at opening the new unit this year, but problems in staffing, building construction and funding pushed it back a year.

Most people in Michigan have been troubled to one degree or another in trying to secure medical care, so there is little disagreement about the need for more doctors.

The location of the training facility has been more of an argument.

Now, however, MSU officials have completed arrangements with Sparrow Hospital in Lansing for cooperation in the various clinical training requirements.

While financing the new college may still pose some problems, the national medical school accrediting agency has given MSU enough assurance of recognition to enable university officials to seek available federal funds. They have already received indications of substantial amounts.

No one contends this two-year program will provide all the doctors needed, but there is little doubt that it can improve the basic shortage of fully trained men.

Computers are continuing to make changes in state government as well as private industry.

Several agencies now use various types of data processing equipment for keeping records, analyzing accounts, and other purposes.

Perhaps the biggest changes brought about by the electronic age to government operations has been in the area of personnel.

Civil service examination procedures were one of the first areas to be involved in computer use. Improvement of testing and correcting methods continues annually through new uses of the computer system.

The Civil Service Commission also has started using its computer for analysis of salary rates in its annual survey of industry-public agency wages. Employee history records will be fully added to the computer system by the end of this fiscal year.

Eventually, Commission officials say, data processing will perform such functions as computing personnel pay increases, accrued sick and annual leave credits, and issuing service rating forms.

School Board Minutes

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Grayling Public Schools was called to order on October 11, 1965, by President Millikin at 8:15 p. m. Present: Supt. John, Strong, Dorsch, Thompson and Henig.

Minutes of the September meeting were approved as read.

On motion of Smock supported by Pettijohn bills 5288-5347 in the amount of $31,554.36 were unanimously approved for payment.

The balance in the general fund as of September 30, 1965, was $34,889.01; in debt retirement $31,554.36; and building and site $18,900.00. There was a deficit in the hot lunch fund of $1,127.85.

A letter from the Fire Marshal stated that specifications recommended by him had been satisfactorily complied with.

In view of the rising food costs, a motion by Strong, supported by Pettijohn, passed unanimously to raise the cost of hot lunch from 30 to 35 cents per meal.

It was pointed out the vision and hearing testing would begin October 18th.

Among the items discussed were Michigan Public Employees legislation, bus housing, remedial reading, aluminum siding and trim for gym, medical insurance for bus students (a letter from Wolverine Insurance Co. stated normally a two thousand maximum insurance coverage is all that is allowed).

Central Paving Co. is to return and do more work on elementary school parking lot.

A motion by Dorsch supported by Thompson passed unanimously to sign the work orders to authorize payment of extra work done by the Deming Co. at the elementary school.

Also discussed were gym rental and required physical exams for gym.

Meeting adjourned 10:30 p. m. on motion of Thompson supported by Henig. Motion carried.

E. Strong, Sec'y.

Goods, Services Locally Set Record

NEW YORK - The upswing in business, locally, enabled Crawford County to do its part in the past year in moving the gross national product to a new high.

It was made possible, chiefly, by an increase in local consumer spending for goods and services. The facts and figures are brought out in reports from the Department of Commerce and in data released in other marketing studies.

The gross national product (GNP) represents the dollar value of all goods and services produced in this country. It is the generally accepted measure of the state of the economy.

During the past year it broke into new high ground, reaching $629 billion. This was $40 billion more than in 1963 and $68 billion more than in 1962.

Most of the gains were due to greater consumer spending by the American public. Through their purchases, they accounted for no less than 62 per cent of the total GNP.

By way of comparison, all Federal spending, together with all outlays by state and local governments and all capital investments by industry came to less than 38 per cent of the total.

In Crawford County, consumer spending in the year amounted to $15,520,000, the figures show.

Some $9,476,000 of it went for merchandise purchased in local retail stores and an estimated $6,044,000 for services of all kinds - automobile repairs, beauty parlors, movies, laundry service, living accommodations, sports,

Crawford County Avalanche Thursday, November 18, 1965

amusements, travel and the many others.

The total represents an increase of 25.9 per cent over the volume of consumer products and services that were used three years before, $12,325,000.

It was a greater gain than was shown for the same period in the United States as a whole, 19.0 per cent. The gain in Michigan was 22.0 per cent.

Quietly but persistently, the total consumption of goods and services in the United States continues to rise, year after year. All indications are that 1965 will be no exception.

Factors involved in this growth include bigger spending programs on the part of the Government, an increase in the number of employed people, rising consumer incomes and greater spending by industry for research and development.
